

Special SUIT and OVERCOAT Sale

STAMPER BROTHERS

Salisbury, Missouri

YOURSELF AND OTHERS

Local News Briefly Mentioned

All of the assessment books are in except two.

Troy Longwells parents from Decatur, Ill., are visiting him.

Crockett Atterbury and N. N. Allen of Mendon were here Monday.

Jack Harrison sold his residence in Brunswick to Mrs. J. P. Gaines.

Mrs. Grace Shewalter, one of the many Triplett belles, was a visitor in Brunswick Tuesday.

Miss Joe Martin left Monday for Kirksville to take a course in teachers training at the Normal.

The old officers of the Farmers Bank were re-elected at the meet of the board of directors Tuesday.

Mrs. Fannie Ward of Phoenix, Ari., arrived for the funeral of her mother Mrs. D. J. Nichols Wednesday.

C. D. Hunt has engaged Frank Warriner, a master mechanic to attend to patrons at his shop, the Tippet stand.

"Henpecked Henry"—a musical comedy show American Theatre, one night only, Tuesday night, Jan. 18.

My cash system is working we'll both ways.

C. L. White.

James Clavin of northwest of town is recovering from a very serious illness, in fact it was thot that Jim had a close call on his resisting powers.

Misses Edith Freeman, Nellie Bean and Leylen Sneed of Salisbury were the guests of Miss Edith Welch Saturday and Sunday.

Uncle Ben Welch who is at the home of his son-in-law Tom Littler, continues to grow weaker and hopes of his recovery are very small.

Mrs. Louis Tebbe of Sharon, Kas., arrived Tuesday to be with her mother Mrs. Mary Young who is now recovering from serious illness.

All of the pupils from academies and colleges who were home for the holidays have returned and there is a dullness in society on that account.

Rev. J. A. Bellon conducted the funeral of Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Dryer, at Prairie Hill last Sunday, and was called to preach another funeral Monday, but was unable to respond.

The new bridge over Palmers Creek between Dalton and Brunswick is not quite ready for crossing. The failure to open the road south of the railroad bridge was a deplorable neglect.

John McMahon of Salisbury was here Monday.

J. H. Lee farm property sale Tuesday, Jan. 18.

Cashier John McCormick of Sumner was a business visitor Monday.

C. C. Parks sold a big bunch of mixed hogs to A. S. Wilks this week.

The quiet after the holidays is almost oppressive both in business and society.

Our young men are preparing to do the right thing in the way of a return party.

The Lizzie Young sale is a big one and it will pay to attend if you want stock of any kind, farm implements or any other thing on the bills.

Make it a point to go to the big sale which will be held by Lizzie M. Young at her farm, 2 miles north of town, Monday Jan. 17.

Our school is said to be progressing nicely but there appears to be something lacking. Just what it is will come to the surface sometime.

Skaters had a good time on the slick, hard frozen surface of the snow yesterday. Every street and pavement was utilized by children and older people.

Tony Keeting did not make his outing as long as he expected, finding Christmas enjoyments about over with everywhere. He is on the job at his shop to meet all who owe him.

Lieut. C. B. Rucker was in Brunswick this week on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lovick Rucker, and other relatives. He was stationed at Douglas, Ariz., but will go east with his command.

The Brunswick Brick and Tile works shipped three carloads of tile this week. It would be well for those who have a wet spot on their farms to get after it with tile and make it pay something on its proportion of taxes.

January Clearance Sale

Any Suit or Overcoat in the house at $15.00. Shoes, Hats, Shirts, Ties and All other Furnishings reduced to prices you can't afford to miss. January 18th to 29th inclusive.

C. B. WALLACE & CO.
BRUNSWICK, MO.

Stock and grain market up a little.

See the sale ads in this issue—J. H. Lee and Lizzie M. Young.

Pavements were pretty generally cleaned of mud this round and it is hoped that the extravagance will be continued.

County Clerk White issued 488 hunters licenses in 1915, but they did not cover the whole number of zulus and other pot metals by any means.

The James Clavin family north west of town has been on the sick list for several weeks, Norbert having quite a seige of the grippe and Mrs. Clavin a complication of ills.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Neighbors of north Chranneville and Miss Neighbors were here shopping Saturday. Lloyd bot 40 acres of land from the Riley tract lying near his own land.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cropper left Saturday for their new home in Kansas City. We regret losing this young couple who were prominent in the business and society matters of our berg.

"Henpecked Henry"—American Theatre, Tuesday night, Jan. 18. Funny comedians, pretty girls, fancy dancing, latest songs, nifty, classy wardrobes; lots of changes; a sure cure for the blues; two hours of solid fun and something doing all the time. Come.

January Clearance Sale

Eleven Big Days

January 18th to 29th Inclusive

C. B. WALLACE & CO.
BRUNSWICK, MO.

BUGGY AND SLEIGH For Sale

A buggy and good sleigh for sale at bargain prices. Phone 174 or call on

E. E. HARRIS

Brunswick Brick & Tile Co.

Wire Cut Brick, Drain Tile and Building Tile

WRITE FOR QUOTATIONS ON QUANTITIES

L. KINKHORST & SON, Proprietors
BRUNSWICK, MISSOURI

UP-TO-DATE

Staple and Fancy Groceries

VEGETABLES, FRUITS, CANDIES
CIGARS AND TOBACCO

Produce Wanted for Cash or Exchange

CHARLES SCHELL, Jr.

COME TO CHURCH

SPECIAL SERVICES at the Presbyterian Church of Keytesville, beginning Sunday morning, January 16, and continuing every night thru the week. Rev. Clyde Shelton of St. Louis will conduct the meetings. Everybody is cordially invited.

COME TO CHURCH

OLD RELIABLE Grocery Store

Fresh Goods Always. Staple and Fancy Groceries of All Kinds Fruits, Vegetables. Cured Meats, Candies and Tobaccos

PRODUCE WANTED

L. B. THRASH

HALTON POWELL'S MUSICAL COMEDY SENSATION

THIRD SUCCESSFUL SEASON

"HENPECKED HENRY"

BETTER THAN EVER

"The Funniest Show in the World"—Milwaukee Sentinel

Banner Chorus of Beautiful Girls

GREAT CAST OF Comedians & Dancers

20 Song Sensations — Breaking Records Everywhere

American Theatre One Night Only TUESDAY Jan. 18

PRICES: CHILDREN 25 CENTS - ADULTS 50 CENTS

